A generous helping of Fringe from east Winnipeg

Sorry fellas, this one is just for the ladies.

Girls Only: The Secret Comedy of Women is a female-only sketch-comedy that "looks at the girlie-girliness that makes us girls," says Barbara Gehring.

Gehring, one of the play's two writers and actors, says the idea for the girls-night-out theme came when she re-read her junior high diaries.

"We stumbled across the diaries and we were fascinated and mortified at the same time," said Gehring, who grew up in East St. Paul but now lives in Colorado.

Gehring and her partner in hilarity, Linda Klein, perform sketches, video, improv, music and general silliness as part of their act.

Included will be a musical number dedicated to the ridiculousness of putting on pantyhose, and the legendary Kotex Kraft Korner – what to do with your unmentionables after menopause hits.

Girls Only: The Secret Comedy of Women is playing at the Playhouse Studio (Venue 3) at 180 Market Ave.
