

A Festival for the Senses

Who Is A.C.E.?

Linda Klein has been performing comedy professionally for eight years and unprofessionally since birth. She has been seen in more than 300 shows in the Denver area and has written for the snappy sketch comedy group, The ACME Comedy Players. Although Linda has traveled extensively throughout Asia, Europe and the Americas, she doubts that Itchenor* actually exists. (*see Matthew Taylor)

Barbara Gehring currently works as a professional actor in Denver, although her heart still belongs to Winnipeg, Canada. Since arriving in the US five years ago, Barbara has performed with various improv and sketch comedy troupes. She also starred in a 12-month run of Denver's Longest Running Show, Murder Most Fowl, and recently played a title role in the feature film, Dragon and the Hawk. Barbara is a black belt in karate. Need we say more.

Matthew Taylor is a commercial actor in the Mile-High City. He was transplanted to Colorado from the small sailing village of Itchenor, England. In spite of his prolific on-camera career, Matthew is first and foremost husband to Denver socialite, Susan Hennessy and father of the dynamic duo, Maitland and Alastair.

2528 Dexter St., Suite 100
Denver, CO 80207
303.322.6750
www.ACEcomedy.com