

Hello from A.C.E...

A.C.E., an international comedy trio, creates character driven shows bending all possible barriers. They take their audience on a wild ride through all five senses with comedy, music and the completely unexpected. Each show is unique and completely customizable to any event or theme.

A Little History...

A.C.E., a Denver based comedy troupe, was formed by commercial actors, Linda Klein, Barbara Gehring and Matthew Taylor in 1998 and quickly grabbed the attention of the HBO representative during the HBO US Comedy Arts auditions that fall. Greatly encouraged by that response, A.C.E. went on to earn first place at the Aspen Comedy Fringe Festival two years in a row, wow local audiences and receive numerous accolades including Westword's Best of Denver 1999 & 2000 and the coveted four-star rating from the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

A.C.E. is ready for more...

A.C.E., having had a successful 2001 with a six stop around-the-world booking and their sell-out performance at Second City in Chicago, is looking forward to continuing to perform for loyal crowds in Denver and Boulder. The three have their sights set high, pursuing future television appearances and ultimately a live TV show of their own.
